67 GREYHOUND

COMPILED AND EDITED BY THE 1967 YEARBOOK STAFF

MISS BERTHA M. NORMAN, ADVISER

Copy 2
FOREWORD

It is spring. At every corner the heart rejoices. Memory crowds lifetimes into ill written leaflets in the book of life. The pages are turned and perhaps for an instance unimportant events, seemingly, are the ones most special. The completion of final exams, an exuberating victory, the pride of personal accomplishments--each represent some phase, some stage of maturity in the past.

The torch is passed. Behind also is heartache. Remembrances of the humiliation of defeat, the disappointment of failure, or the pungent pain at the final departure of a principal, a teacher, or a friend will always bring to surface the bitter-sweet agony of sadness.

Through carefully selected phrases and pictures, the '67 GREYHOUND attempts to rediscover and portray the truly important experiences: the ones that stimulate laughter and the ones that create tears.

Yet gone forever is the past. No longer can the same fierce excitement exert quite the same feeling. For every happiness has made an imprint and every tear has left a stain.

Indeed the torch has passed! Behind is the now faint dimness of recollection, ahead is the luring glimmer of the future, but for today--there will be another torch, another flame, another light--and its brilliance shall be surpassed.

"The Year of the Greyhound"

SENIORETTES
"The Chosen Few"

A cheerful smile from Mr. Edwards starts the day on its way.

Checking the absentees of the Administrative Detention List really keeps Mr. McGriff busy.

Seeing the Color Guard, one knows that it won't be long before the band comes.

The girls are Carroll, Martel, 'Lexis, Jackie, and Barb. (STANDING) Mag, Nicie, Ronnie, Vickie, Sheryl, Linda, and Deb. (SITTING) Renee and Yvonne were absent when picture was taken. Nicie is prexy.

At least wait until they begin before throwing the eggs.

Crowned the Eastern District and State Champs, our outstanding team also placed 3rd in the Nationals!!!!

"Love Is A Hurting Thing"

Did she or didn't she? Only her photographer knew for sure.

On A Clear Day You Can See Forever??

A Memorable Bouquet

Violets are for thoughts, they say,
That's why these come
to you today,

Roses stand for love
of you that your students held all the years through,

Daisies for a day
that's bright
When you made everything
turn out just right,

Every Blue FORGET-ME-NOT
Means you are Remembered
always, a lot.

To Someone We Love

Mrs. Davis and Mr. A. T. Edwards

Old friends are the best.

Mrs. Grace E. Davis distinguished herself as an outstanding educator in the field of English. She received her formal education from Wilberforce University.

For 33 years, she dedicated her life to developing young minds here at Norcom.

Mrs. Davis, for your inspiration, loyalty, devotion, and undying dedication to Norcom, the 1967 Yearbook Staff pays loving tribute to you.

"I will miss you all because I love you all."

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Helen Cox

DEDICATION

A GIANT AMONG MEN

The memories of a great man--Mr. W. E. Waters will live,
In our hearts eternally as we onward move and strive.
Though death took him from our presence we still esteem,
His honor, wisdom, and work above all men who beam.
We, the Student Body have suffered a great loss,
But we are determined not to waste and toss,
About our hopes in foolish vain, but to do the aim,
Of education that Mr. Waters so nobly proclaimed.

Yes, though he lies beneath the billows of the earth,
We know that he is there with earnest worth
An educator for thirty hollowed years does prove,
That he indeed had a true and sincere love
For his fellow man, community, and mankind
But the heartfelt beliefs of a man so great still will bind
The students closer to the heights of success and fame,
As we all climb up the ladder a man of no impediments came,
We'll all look up and think of our tall tall friend,
Who loved education and equality to the utmost end

Climbing up the ladder of success will prove,
To all that we esteem this giant among men with love
His mere memories will help us to overcome,
As we strive and fight to really become,
A Giant in our small yet earnest ways
But as our mind tends to look over it, still sways,
To this old yet true saying; Only Your Best is Sufficient
But well do we know that he was efficient,
Enough to partake of this gold and treasure
To reap his highest peak with sincere pleasure

When the battle is over we'll be a stepping stone
To the principles our dear Principal had us tone
Then and only then can we really prove,
That he's not dead . . . only resting in the bosom of love.

The Torch Is Passed to

Mr. Albert T. Edwards
Principal

Mr. A. T. Edwards, our principal, has guided us through our school years with sound advice and understanding.

Always lavish in his praise of notable accomplishments, he sets the pace for incomparable school spirit. Nevertheless, he openly frowns on the things that would detract from the school.

In fair and foul weather Mr. Edwards is always ready to come to our rescue. His door is always open to all students, and his firm guidance, along with the "eternal flame" of understanding which is embodied within him, will light the way for many in the years to come.

a New Administration

Mr. John L. McGriff
Assistant Principal

The primary objective of the I. C. Norcom High School is to provide the best possible program of education essential to worthy membership in a democratic society. The assistant principal has the responsibility of promoting and maintaining discipline in the school. The most desirable type is student self-discipline. This includes factors such as self-respect, respect for others, maintenance of high scholastic standards, and moral codes.

The challenge is great and its success depends on the total cooperation of the home, the staff, and the student.

Student Teacher Center Cadets

Our Cadets from Virginia State Petersburg have served us well. And we shall long remember them. Miss Nora Smith, Miss A. Johnson, Mr. Stewart Moore, Miss Gwendolyn Harrison, Mr. Charles Ross, Miss A. Harris, Miss Christine Lee, and Miss M. Hobson

Cadets from Norfolk Division of Virginia State College, strive with will power to give instructions to us. Mrs. Barbara Brodie, Mrs. Ernestine Spires, Mrs. Arcola Harris, Mr. John Baker, Miss Sylvia White, Mrs. Martha Brooks, Miss Lillian Young, and Miss Geraldine Holmes

Some of our past cadets find leisure time after a hard days work.

PARENTS-TEACHERS

Norcom PTA.

The usual procedure is to meet in the Fall and plan the program for the year. This year the committee planned for five meetings.

A week before each meeting (2nd Tuesday in each month) the joint committees meet to plan the agenda for the coming meeting. The P.T.A. president presides at these meetings.

ASSOCIATION

Mr. and Mrs. Todd check with
Mrs. Parker on official business.

Mrs. Juanita Chambliss, President and Mrs. Mitchell, Treasurer talk with each other on P. T. A. business.

Mr. James DeBerry, once our head Custodian, has served us well keeping our school in good condition.

Mr. Herbert Harrel took the job as Head Custodian, when Mr. DeBerry left.

CLASS SONG

As we leave the halls of Norcom
Our eyes fill with tears
We dread to see the end come
yet, the end of wholesome years

There have been times of victory and there've been times of loss;
But times that we've spent with thee
We'd repeat at any cost.

As we leave the halls of Norcom,
Our eyes fill with tears.
We dread to see the end come;
Yet, the end of wholesome years.
Yet, the end of wholesome years.

Class Poem

The class of 1967 must leave dear Norcom; Out in the busy world we're due
The way is clear before us,
But a strange unrest come o'er us,
For a voice is calling "Rise and Do."
Our days will be spent performing mighty deeds,
We shall not drift at ease along life's stream.
We must live with zest and duty,
and yet remember forever the power of dreams

Oh, Dear Norcom High, skillfully with sympathetic care you've guided us the maze of learning though Though away our steps are turning, and for great challenges we're yearning.
Every heart still burns, Dear Norcom High, with love for you.

Enthusiasm Is Their Guide

STUDENT

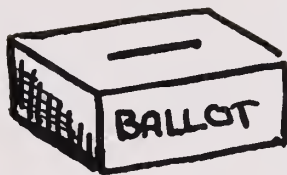

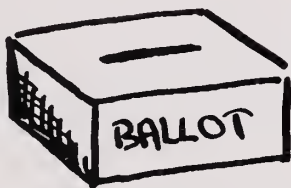

The governmental nucleus of our school is the Student Council. As stated in the constitution "the organization seeks to provide student participation in school government, establish a better understanding between the faculty and students and insure respect for the law and school." President John Hatcher walks softly, carries a big stick and leads us all to peaks of unbelievable success.

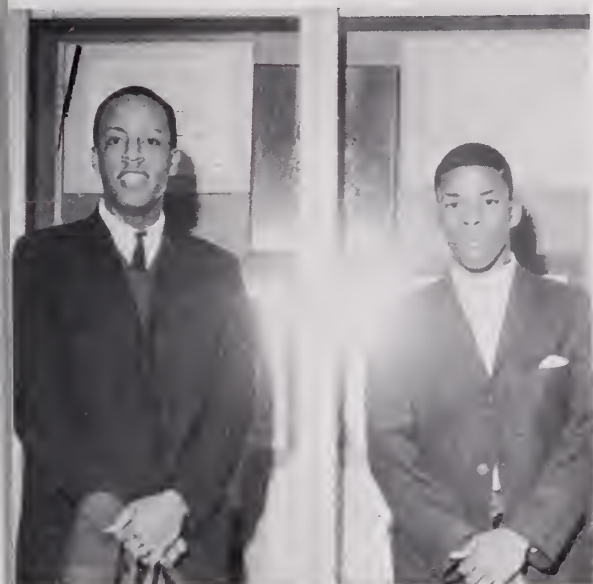

Equality Is Their Goal

The Man Who Hath no Music in Himself, nor Is Filled with

PARADE OF CHAMPIONS

In November of 1966, the Norcom "Marching Greyhounds" were invited to participate in the Parade of Champions in Philadelphia consisting of eight of the nation's championship bands. The "Greyhounds" were awarded a bronze plaque for their performance in this festival.

"Another Openin'! Another Show!"

On the floor of Convention Hall, the band formed a bugle and musically rendered "Bugle's Holiday."

Parade of Princesses

In April of 1966, the band was part of the National Cherry Blossom Festival Parade of Princesses. They won a parade trophy in competition with 52 of the finest bands from all parts of the country. The band will again participate in the 1967 Cherry Blossom Festival.

Concord of Sweet Sounds, Is Fit for Treasons, Stratagems

This is the beginning of the band's remarkable success. Hats off to a diligent worker, Mr. Emery L. Fears, director.

Playing music in the most difficult category (Grade VI), the Norcom Concert Band received the highest rating, Superior, at the Regional Music Festival held at Maury High School, March 11, 1967.

Success for the band usually ends like this! These trophies represent the many hours of individual and group rehearsals. There's no doubt that the band will increase in number these trophies as their reign as Champions continues.

Through auditions, the above persons earned positions in the 1967 All-Regional Band. They are Jacquelyn Smith, Angela Taylor, Henry Smith, Linda Anderson, Madeline Harrington, and Charles Morgan who was not present when the picture was taken.

The concert band contributes to the cultural development at Norcom.

Acting in the capacity of a student conductor, Henry Smith displays his technique.

Majorettes for the year 1966-1967 are Belva Batts (head majorette), Norma Rumble, Helen Royal, Brenda Ash, Francine Kee, and Dorothy Young.

Anyone for Bach or Beethoven?

The youngest of our musical organizations is the symphony orchestra. This group had its birth slightly over five years ago. Since that time it has grown in size and reputation. Since its birth the orchestra has performed during the Fine Arts Series, at commencement exercises, and at Eastern District Music Festivals. Last year the orchestra received three superior ratings for its performances of "Overture to Samson" (Handel). During its early years of existence the group was led by Mr. Emery Fears. Last year the reigns were passed on to Mrs. Dianne Chapman.

This year the orchestra has made several appearances including one with the chorus at its annual Christmas concert. They accompanied the chorus in rendering several selections from Handels' MESSIAH.

Curtis Branch, Brenda Grimes, Patricia DeBerry, Charles Reid, and Roland Wallace represented the group in the newly formed All-City Orchestra which made its debut at Woodrow Wilson High School in December 1966.

The Sound

"THE SELECT 36"

"When I would, in my mind, ideas of a society in the highest degree happy, I think of them expressing their love, their joy, and the inward concord, and harmony, and spiritual beauty of the souls, by sweetly singing to each other."

--Jonathan Edwards

THE MIXED CHORUS
DIRECTOR: Mr. Melvin Lewis

"The greatest moments in all music are when human beings join together to give, not only of their art, but of themselves; to give to music, and to Him they praise through music, the very breath of life."

--Charles O'Connell

of Music

Our Director

Mr. Melvin Lewis

"The Sound of Music" rendered by the "Select 36" group of the Mixed Choir. Gee! Don't they look good and they sound even better.

Practice makes perfect.

When one hears the sweet and melodious voices of the I.C. Norcom Mixed Chorus, he is at once caught in "The Sound of Music." The Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Melvin N. Lewis, is the finest in the state. Their music range from the Fourteenth century selections to the contemporary and popular songs. Receiving superior ratings in their district and state festivals is one of their aims and for eleven consecutive years they have been achieving this aim. The frequent morning and evening rehearsals culminate with the wonderful Christmas concert, Fine Arts concert, and other concerts throughout the year. The Mixed Chorus provides listening pleasure on radio stations, on television stations, and on functions outside as well as within the school. This Choir is one that I.C. Norcom is proud of.

THE CULTURE CLUB

Culture Club members worked directly with the Guidance Department in promoting cultural activities in the school. Their best accomplishments were the Fine Arts Series and Vocations Week.

A group of Culture Club members got together after an assembly program.

INDUSTRIAL COOPERATIVE TRAINING

The Industrial Cooperative Training Club was sponsored by Mr. Roosevelt Harmon. Here he is seen in one of his rare poses. He takes time out to check with Guidance Secretary Mrs. Hyater to see that his work is done exactly right. The concern that he showed for his job and students helped to make membership in the I.C.T. program a very enjoyable one.

What makes a school? The answer is quite simple. People make a school because the school itself is people. The many people that compose I. C. Norcom differ in looks, personality and individual activities. Our last year here revealed this quite clearly.

Demonstrating the skills that they have acquired these young ladies all are anticipating successful careers because of the techniques acquired in Vocational Office Training.

The officers of the Vocation Office Training Club are Sheryl West, Secretary; Constance Herndon Treasurer; Janet Holley, Vice-President; and Maurice Goode, President.

Joan Alexander looks up in an effort to remember how to use the mimeograph machine, but the answer is not there.

FORENSICS CLUB

I regret that I have but one life to give for a dynamic cause. Taking a pause from their busy day these Forensics Club members stopped for a picture. Members of the club are William Malowe, Arthur Harding, Hazel Peters, Clyde Horton, Leah Drake, Lonnie Drew, Tonette Choate, Gilbert Yancey, Rita Hardy, Bernard Hughes, Carolyn Cumbo, Tony Gatling and Cheryl Hampton. The sponsor is Mrs. Mae Askew. During the year the Debating Team (a subdivision of the club) won First Place at the Norfolk State College Invitational Debating Tournament. The Debating Team is coached by Mr. E. Bright.

THE LIBRARY CLUB

Members of the Library Club are always willing to give assistance when it is needed.

If you are tired, weary and have a project due the next day, then turn to the library and you will find a solution to all of your problems.

Busy, busy, busy students always use the reference section of the library.

PARLEZ VOUS FRANÇAIS?

This Frenchy looking group of Frenchmen stopped their romantic talking long enough to pose for the photographer. The entire French Circle participated in a variety of activities during the year. Highlighting the year was a visit to the Language Day Festivities at Norfolk State College.

Because of his excellence and skill in comprehension in French James Hailes participated in a Foreign Language Institute held at Hampton Institute during the summer of 1967. The institute consisted of classes in Advanced French Literature and Grammar, Seminars and Laboratory periods.

Leading the French Circle with true spirit, French Circle officers settled for nothing but the best.

This group of girls all think if I can sing it correctly once then maybe I can make it into the choir of the master musician (Mr. Lewis). Directing the group is Miss Marvinna Hobson, student teacher from Virginia State College.

The purpose of the choir is to train persons with deficiencies in vocal music who wish to join the Senior Chorus. Frequently the choir produces many persons who join the Senior Chorus and become outstanding soloists.

Mrs. Ragland displays part of her storehouse of knowledge to members of the cast for "The Imaginary Invalid."

MODERN DANCE

The most outstanding achievement of the modern dance group during the school year was its performance at the Chesapeake Planetarium. The performance was in a series. Patricia Mosley, Francine Kee, Valerie Staton, Ruth Gourdine, James Allmond, and William Council were the performers who thrilled the audience with their interpretation of ancient Egyptian life. The boys recreated the legendary annual fight between good and evil while the girls performed a Sun Dance.

GROUP

Dancing with poise and grace requires a lot of stamina

OUR GUARDIANS

The dynamic and dedicated policemen of our school took time out to pause for the photographer. Look at them very closely. Can't you see that radiating look of dedication to law and order?

All good organizations must have capable leaders to function well. This group of officers are no exception. They proved to be energetic and quite efficient. Could it be that all of this was caused by the presence of charming Gail Sheppard?

OF PEACE

Realizing that an organization must have a capable leader Crystal Yancey bequeaths his office of Captain to his younger brother Gilbert.

The duty of the Student Patrol is to enforce all school regulations. The patrolmen have a sense of responsibility and in general have the welfare of the school at heart. Whatever job they were given they did it with their might. Most outstanding performances were rendered by the patrolmen after assemblies, at the Junior-Senior Prom, during the Fine Arts Series, at Baccalaureate and most of all, Commencement.

We shall never forget the way you made us respect the law even when we did not want to. We shall always be grateful to you for this.

Patrolman Willie Yates finds the collection of books in our school very handy and most informative.

Being a patrolman is not all work and no play. Chester Benton, Eugene Hairs-ton and Elijah Ross will testify to this truth as they relax after checking coats at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Health plays an important role in the learning process. Therefore, we weigh our bodies as well as our minds.

A Tropical Paradise

Look' who's around the food!

Ah! Caught in the act!

Blow baby blow! Mr. Fears and his band can really play.

What handsome couples pose for us at the prom.

INTRAMURAL CLUB

Intramural Council: This group of young people have made this the best Intramural program in recent years. It has provided the students with a form of active recreation, other than varsity teams.

INTRAMURAL CREED

I believe that Intramurals is a very important part of student life.

For the student it is a laboratory filled with experiences where individual adjustments must be made in order to gain group approval. Educationally, it demands responses toward individuals. The intramural program provides an opportunity for social growth and development, by being a part of and contributing to group effort.

Through self-discipline and proper self-conduct the individual participating in intramurals enhances his standing both as an individual and as a group members. The Intramural Program is one designed for self-development as well as recreational pleasure. It promotes the true spirit of amateur athletics. Students participate in an activity of their own choosing.

Intramural activities combat undesirable influences in student life by providing physical and emotional outlets directed in constructive channels.

I believe the intramural program to be a builder of spirit, mind and body through a democratic process in a time of great need.

Go Harold Go!!!

Harold Richardson President of the student council leads the Jr. Greyhounds to victory.

G. Venson, M. Garner (Secret Agents), E. Claude, S. Harris (Jr. Greyhounds) F. Epps, M. Whitechish (Cougars) J. Barnes, E. Wright (Hawks)

Senior Band Members form a 67, marking their year of success.

MISS FRESHMAN

The bewitching Miss Caroleen Delores Wilson of Miss D. Shelton's 9B³ home-room takes time to pose for her Miss Freshman picture. When asked how she felt when she became Miss Freshman, she stated, "It was the most thrilling event in my life." She was chosen to reign as Miss Freshman by her beloved freshmen, not only for her beauty, but her academic achievements also. The freshmen who supported her all the way did not regret having chosen such a precious queen. May she reign in splendor!

Freshman classes always enjoy the study of THE ODYSSEY. Here is that one-eyed giant!

A grid of black lines on a white background. The grid consists of 4 vertical lines and 6 horizontal lines, creating a 5x5 grid of squares. Three squares are filled with solid black: the top-left square, the square in the second row from the top and fourth column from the left, and the bottom-center square.

PATRONS CONTEST

Since 1963 the Yearbook Staff has sponsored a patrons contest for the students of Norcom to earn a free yearbook or receive a discount in their class dues. This year a student only needed to sell $25.00 worth of tickets to receive a free yearbook.

At the close of the Patrons Contest on November 30, 1966 only one student had gone beyond the CALL. This student is PETER SINGLETON, a member of Mr. E. Wright's 4B-7 homeroom section.

The 1967 Yearbook Staff was pleased to award to Peter Singleton all of the door prizes the staff solicited from the merchants in Portsmouth.

At the left is a picture of Curtis Branch and Leah Drake, editors-in-chief of the 1967 yearbook extending to Peter Singleton one of several gifts he won by selling the highest number of patrons in the 1966-67 Patrons Contest.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

To the managers of the different stores who bought space for advertisement in our book;

To each student who sold patrons tickets in our patrons contest;

To all the members of the community who patronized our book;

To all subscribers;

The 1967 Yearbook Staff and sponsors are grateful to each of you.

And these days are swiftly passing, we come to the end of our book as well as our days Norcom High; now we must look to the future. Time is flying our days of genuine happiness are dying.

EPILOGUE

Even tho our hearts with sadness

are replenished.

Dolefully we admit our days at Norcom are finished.

The way is lonely and dark and we have but a torch to guide us by. The Torch bears an eternal flame. We regret having to leave dear Norcom, but time marches on, and so must we.
